

vrunner

vrunner is a binary module provided by vREST team. This utility is helpful in performing following tasks:

1. Executing vREST test cases via command line
 - a. Just install this utility and start executing your vREST test cases via command line.
 - b. This video tutorial demonstrates, how you may execute test cases via command line:
2. Integrate with any continuous integration tools
 - a. This utility can be integrated with any continuous integration tool like Jenkins Server.
3. Scheduling vREST test cases
 - a. This utility can be used in any third party scheduler like cron utility.
 - b. So, you may schedule your test cases easily.

Note: For download and setup vrunner, please follow Setup / Install vrunner.