

Automatic View Switching

There are some views in RMsis, which have restrictions on the functions which can be performed on them. For example, it is not possible to insert requirements in "View All Version".

In the event of any such occurrence, RMsis will offer an option to user to switch views. The user can either switch to the new view or remain on the current one.

In certain cases, the view will be automatically switched.